

9/11: 10 Years On

A Roundtable

hosted by the School of Political Science and International Studies

The James Birrell Room, Staff Club St Lucia Campus

3- 5pm, Friday 9 September 2011

This event is free and open to everyone

The roundtable reflects on the implications of 9/11 and responses to it for the international system generally; democracy and human rights; US foreign policy and American power; and terrorism/ counter-terror and Afghanistan since 2001. The roundtable is composed of leading experts in political science and international studies who have published extensively in these areas. Following brief presentations on the themes noted below, there will be an opportunity for Q&A with the speakers.

- William Maley (ANU): Al Qaeda, Afghanistan and counter-terrorism 10 years after 9/11
- Katherine Gelber (UQ): The Implications of the 'War on Terror' for Democracy and Human Rights
- William T. Tow (ANU): American Power and Foreign Policy in a post-2001 world
- Tim Dunne (UQ): 9/11, the War on Terror and Global Order
- Chair: Matt McDonald (UQ)
