Please join us at the 3rd Annual Paul Harris Seminar hosted by The University of Queensland's Rotary Centre for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution.

The Paul Harris Seminar is a unique opportunity to showcase the activities, achievements and research conducted by the Rotary World Peace Fellows.

The Peace Fellows will present topics directly related to contemporary issues in international relations and peace and conflict resolution through a variety of presentations and interactive workshops.

This group of dedicated and talented Fellows will inspire you with their commitment to peace and justice in the world.

Be part of an exciting day guaranteed to open your mind to the world in which we live.
